

Wreath Workshop - Making Your Entrance Grand

October 5, 2019, Saturday morning, 9:00 to 11:45 am
Benz School of Floral Design, TAMU Horticulture Building,
495 Horticulture Road, College Station, Tx
Parking in TAMU Lot 74 or 97. Walk to Hort building & Gardens.

Enjoy your creativity in fun sessions: "Making Your Entrance Grand" to design your "work of art" wreath with William J. (Bill) McKinley, Director and Endowed Chair, Benz School of Floral Design at Texas A&M University. Bill will instruct on history of wreaths and demonstrate mechanics to create your wreath, in a joint venture with the A&M Garden Club, who will help you design your wreath - "Make It and Take It". Random grouping to one of 3 themes - Fall (Idalia Aguilar), Christmas (Greta Merritt) and Spring (Suzanne Milstead). All materials included: 24" round honeysuckle vine frame, accents and interest items. Learn about historical, contemporary, traditional styles. TAMU Floral Club may have extra supplies for sale. TAMU Hort Club may have plants for sale. Learn and teach your club, enter Flower Shows, decorate at church, etc. Comparable wreaths sell for $60 to $125.

The Gardens at Texas A&M University - Guided tour at 1:00 pm arranged by Heather White. A TGC sponsored project, The Gardens, were conceived as a public teaching garden, meant to enrich people's lives by connecting them with the living world of horticulture. The Gardens' 27 acres are a unique blend of natural features and beautifully landscaped gardens, including a Texas Superstars® Garden, a Vegetable and Herb Garden, a Mexican Heritage Garden, etc.. Go down White Creek to visit the Bush Memorial Grave Site at the Bush Presidential Library and Museum at TAMU.

Lunch at The Gardens Pavilion. Enjoy at noon Deli Sandwich or Salad at the iconic octagonal Pavilion

Registration due/received by Sept 1. Limit of 75 registrations. Make check payable to A&M Garden Club and mail to % Jane Cohen, PO Box 443, Wellborn, TX 77881.
